

WELCOME!

We hope that you will find spiritual nourishment and fellowship with us this afternoon.

This bulletin will guide you through today's service step-by-step.

Restrooms are located by going out the door located next to St. Mary's Chapel (which is on the right), and following the hallway through the doors. All are handicap accessible.

If you have any questions at all, our ushers will be happy to help you.

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us and invite you to join us again at our regular Sunday worship services:

8am – Spoken Eucharist in St. Mary's Chapel

10:30am – Choral Eucharist

Everyone is welcome here!

OPENING ACCLAMATION (Church of England, liturgical supplements, pg. 74, adapt.)

Celebrant The people who have walked in darkness

People have seen a great light.

Celebrant For to us a child is born

People to us a child is given.

Celebrant Glory to God in the highest

People and peace to God's people on earth.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT FOR CHRISTMAS DAY

Celebrant God is with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray together

Almighty God, you have given your only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and to be born this day of a Mary: Grant that we, who have been born again and made your children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by your Holy Spirit; through our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom with you and the same Spirit be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the readings.

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 9:2-7

Lector The first reading is from the book of Isaiah

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness--on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

CONTEMPORARY READING

Lector The Contemporary Reading is from the movie, The Santa Clause.

In the movie, The Santa Clause, Scott Calvin is an ordinary man, who accidentally causes Santa Claus to fall from his roof on Christmas Eve and is knocked unconscious. When he and his young son finish Santa's trip and deliveries, they go to the North Pole, where Scott learns he must become the new Santa and convince those he loves that he is indeed, Father Christmas. But first, he must believe himself.

Scott Calvin: Look, you're a nice little elf.

Judy the Elf: Thanks. –

Scott Calvin: But this is a dream. I mean, this is fabulous. Is that a polar bear directin' traffic down there? I-- I see it, but I don't believe it.

Judy the Elf: You're missing the point.

Scott Calvin: What is the point?

Judy the Elf: Seeing isn't believing: believing is seeing. Kids don't have to see this place to know that it's here. They just... know.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

TITUS 3:4-7

Lector The second reading is from the epistle to Titus

When the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as able. We will sing verses 1-2 before the Gospel, and verse 3 after the Gospel.

HYMN 67 (Hymnal 1982 Words: C. Wesley Music: Mendelssohn)

Hark! The herald angels sing

1 Hark! the her-ald an - gels sing glo - ry to the new - born King!

Pleased as man with us to dwell; Je - sus, our Em - man - u - el!
hail, the Sun of Right - eous - ness! hail, the heaven - born Prince of Peace!

Refrain

Hark! the her - ald an - gels sing glo - ry to the new - born King!

THE HOLY GOSPEL

LUKE 2: 8-20

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom God favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

HOMILY The Rev. Diana L. Wilcox

THE CREED (Enriching Our Worship, p. 53)

Note the change in the wording, most especially with regard to the Holy Spirit. These are not errors in the bulletin, but are part of our rich liturgical heritage. The wording about the procession of the Holy Spirit is part of the difference in the Eastern and Western Churches, and a source of controversy. In fact, at our 71st General Convention, it was decided to remove the words “and the Son.”

Let us stand together with Christians throughout the centuries and proclaim the basic creed of the church:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. Who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified. Who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE (Adapted from Sundays and Seasons, Year B)

Celebrant Rejoicing in the light of Christ that shines upon us, we pray for the church, the world, and all according to their needs.

Leader God of glory, fill our hearts with the joy of this day. Stir your church in every place to join the angels' song, praising you for your birth among us and your presence within us. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Leader The seas thunder, the fields rejoice, and the trees shout for joy at your coming. Renew the earth and all its creatures to declare your praise. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Scatter the bitterness of hatred and fear, that all people seek your peace on earth and work to establish goodwill among the nations. We pray for our neighborhoods of Bloomfield & Glen Ridge. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Shine your healing light on those who are alone and long for companionship, those who are rejected, weak, troubled, or sick. We pray especially for those on our parish prayer list. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Comfort us with the gracious vision of our departed loved ones basking in the light of your eternal presence until we too inherit the fullness of your glory. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant I invite you now to offer your own intercessions or thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

COLLECT AT THE PRAYERS (Adapted from Sundays and Seasons, Year A)

Hear the hopes and prayers of our hearts, O God, and magnify our joy at the birth of your Light among us, Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Please stand, as able.

THE PEACE (Enriching our Worship 1, p. 56)

Celebrant The peace of Christ be always with you.

HOLY COMMUNION

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Please stand, as able.

PRESENTATION HYMN 107 (Hymnal 1982 Verse 1 Words: J. Mason Neale Tune: In dulci jublio)

Good Christian friends, rejoice with heart and soul an voice;
give ye heed to what we say:
Jesus Christ is born today;
ox and ass before him bow,
and he is in the manger now.
Christ is born today!
Christ is born today!

SURSUM CORDA (Hymnal 1982, S120)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues (Book of Common Prayer, p. 367)

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

THE SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues (Eucharistic Prayer B, Book of Common Prayer, p. 368)

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world.

In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION (Enriching Our Worship, p. 69)

Celebrant This is the true bread which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

People Whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Anyone with a present to be blessed should bring it forward with them for communion, and Mother Diana will offer a blessing on it.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION (Enriching Our Worship, p. 69)

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people
in heaven and on earth.

Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE CHRISTMAS BLESSING (Book of Occasional Services, p. 23, adapt.)

May Christ, who by his Incarnation gathered into one things earthly and heavenly, fill you with his joy and peace;

And the blessing of God our Creator, Christ our Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit our sustainer, be with you now and always. Amen.
